Course overview

Effective conflict management is an essential leadership skill for pharmaceutical executives operating in complex, highly regulated and cross-functional environments.

This highly practical four-module webinar provides participants with proven strategies, communication techniques and behavioural tools to prevent, manage and resolve workplace conflict.

Participants will learn how to manage difficult conversations, navigate challenging stakeholder relationships, communicate assertively and resolve conflict constructively across teams, functions and cultures.
Through interactive workshops, case studies and role-play exercises, delegates will practise conflict-resolution techniques in realistic pharmaceutical business scenarios.

After the webinar, participants will have the opportunity to attend a complimentary, optional 45-minute virtual coaching session with the course tutor. This private and confidential session allows participants to reinforce their learning, explore key concepts in greater depth, and discuss how the content can be applied within their own workplace.

Benefits of attending

- Understand the root causes of workplace conflict and how to prevent issues from escalating
- Recognise the early warning signs of conflict and address issues proactively
- Develop practical techniques for managing difficult people, challenging stakeholders and emotionally charged situations
- Build effective communication and assertiveness skills for managing workplace conflict
- Apply proven conflict-resolution frameworks to achieve more constructive outcomes
- Improve your ability to influence and communicate effectively across all levels of the organisation

Who should attend?

This training course has been specifically designed for professionals working within the pharmaceutical industry who wish to strengthen their conflict-management capabilities, improve communication effectiveness and enhance their leadership impact.

It is particularly valuable for executives, senior managers, team leaders, project managers and functional specialists who regularly navigate difficult conversations, stakeholder disagreements, competing priorities and cross-functional challenges.

Programme
